- This library is owned and run by the local community on a voluntary basis. Where possible we welcome the facilities to be used by groups when the Library is not open for public sessions.
- Charities looking for a meeting room are welcome to use the facilities free of charge.
- Other local groups who wish to meet are welcome and depending on their means and nature of their activities the standard charge may well be waived.
- Commercial rates will be applied to profit making organizations and those of a commercial nature.
- All groups wishing to use the facility are required to complete conditions of use forms.
- Groups using the facility free of charge are welcome to offer a voluntary contribution to library funds, should they wish and are able to do so.
- Any group or individual wishing to use the facility should contact the Library, where they will be directed to a trustee who will make further arrangements.
